Montgomery first joined the Phillies on February 25, 1971, as a member of the Sales Department. Eleven years later, Montgomery was elevated to Executive Vice President and Chief Operating Officer.

CHAIRMAN

BILL GILES – CHAIRMAN

Bill Giles has spent his whole life in baseball. His father, the late Warren C. Giles, was President and General Manager of the Cincinnati Reds (1946-51) and President of the National League (1951-69). Bill's mother died when he was nine so he spent long hours and a lot of days with his father at Crosley Field in Cincinnati. Bill's first job in baseball came when he was "around 14" years of age. It wasn't a glamorous position, as he did all kinds of odds and ends in the Cincinnati Reds' Public Relations Department.

Following graduation at Denison University, Giles spent three years in the U. S. Air Force as a navigator in the Strategic Air Command.

His baseball career took on a full-time status in 1959 when he was named GM of the Nashville Vols, a Cincinnati minor league team. From there, he moved to the expansion Houston Colt 45s. While in Houston, Giles served as Traveling Secretary, Publicity Director, Director of Public Relations and Promotions and Vice President. With the opening of Veterans Stadium approaching, the Carpenter family brought Giles to Philadelphia to run the business end of the operation.

Giles began his Phillies career as Vice President, Business Operations, following the 1969 season. Three years later he was promoted to Executive Vice President.

When the Carpenters put the team up for sale in the spring of 1981, Giles organized a group which purchased the team on October 29, 1981. He remained President of the club until June 20, 1997, when he moved up to Chairman. Giles is among Philadelphia's more civically involved citizens: Chairman of the Board, Philadelphia Convention and Tourism Bureau; member of the Executive Committee, Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce and Philadelphia Sports Congress; past President of the Boy Scouts of America; on the board of the Pennsylvania Chamber of Commerce, Greater Philadelphia First and the Police Athletic League; and a member of the Union League and Rotary Club.

Giles has been honored many, many times for his contributions to the city. Among the awards:

Distinguished Citizen of the Year by the Boy Scouts of America; Garry Maddox Award by the Philadelphia Child Guidance Center; Police Athletic League Man of the Year (1993), Philadelphia Boys Choir Man of the Year (1994); Anti-Defamation League Man of the Year (1994); American Red Cross Man of the Year (1996), Vision of Philadelphia Award (1996) by Philadelphia Hospitality, Inc., and the American Heart Association's Man of the Year. Giles is likewise very active in major league baseball matters. He is a member of the Official Rules Committee and Chairman of both the Television Committee and the Schedule Format Committee.

Giles, who was born in Rochester, NY, on September 7, 1934, resides in Villanova, PA, with his wife, Nancy. They are the parents of three sons, Michael, Joseph and Christopher. Joe and his wife, Paula, have three daughters, Caroline, Dana and Molly. Chris and his wife, Amy, have two children, Eliza and Warren.

ROOKIE: A player shall be considered a rookie unless, during a previous season or seasons, he has (a) exceeded 130 at bats or 50 innings pitched in the major leagues; or (b) accumulated more than 45 days on the active roster of a major league club or clubs during the period of the 25-player limit.

SAVE: Credit a pitcher with a save when: (1) He is finishing pitcher in a game won by his club; (2) He is not the winning pitcher, and (3) He qualifies under one of the following conditions: (a) He enters the game with a lead of no more than three runs and pitches for at least one inning, or (b) He enters the game with the potential tying run either on base, at bat or on deck, or (c) He pitches effectively for at least three innings. No more than one save may be credited in each game.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME HITTING STREAK: A consecutive-game hitting streak shall not be terminated if all the player's plate appearances result in a walk, hit batsman, defensive interference or a sacrifice bunt. The streak shall terminate if the player has a sacrifice fly and no hit.

CONSECUTIVE-GAME PLAYING STREAK: A consecutive-game playing streak shall extend if the player plays one half-inning on defense, or if he completes a time at bat by reaching base or being put out. A pinch-running appearance only shall not extend the streak. If a player is ejected from a game by an umpire before he can comply with the requirements of this rule, his streak shall continue.

HOW TO FIGURE

BATTING AVERAGE: Divide at bats into hits.

ERA: Multiply earned runs by nine and divide the total by innings pitched.

SLUGGING PERCENTAGE: Divide total bases by the total times at bat (not including walks, sacrifices, hit by pitcher or interference).

ON-BASE PERCENTAGE: Divide the on-base total (hits, walks, hit by pitcher, and interference) by total plate appearances (at bats, walks, hit by pitcher and sacrifice flies).

FIELDING AVERAGE: Divide the total putouts and assists by total chances (putouts, assists and errors).

WINNING PERCENTAGE: Divide the number of games won by the total games played.

MAGIC NUMBER: Determine the number of games yet to be played, add one, then subtract the number of games ahead in the loss column of the standings from the closest opponent.

WAIVERS

WAIVERS - Major League waivers must be secured for all Major League trades from August 1st until the day after the regular season concludes.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Philadelphia, a city rich in history and tradition, has played an integral part in professional baseball's early history. The Cincinnati Red Stockings of 1869 are recognized as the first all-salaried team.

Al Reach

Philadelphia's earliest team was called the Athletics. The year was 1870. The following year, the National Association was formed and Philadelphia was a part of that league. The team was still called the Athletics.

When the Association disbanded, several of the stronger teams formed (1876) the National League, as it is known today. The charter members were the Boston Red Caps, Chicago White Stockings, Cincinnati Red Stockings, St. Louis Brown Stockings, Hartford Dark Blues, New York Mutuals, Louisville Grays and the Philadelphia Athletics.

The very first National League game was played in Philadelphia on April 22, 1876, at 25th and Jefferson Streets. Boston won, 6-5 before an estimated 3,000.

Resting in seventh place with a 14-45 record, the Athletics couldn't make their final western trip because of insufficient funds. The team was immediately expelled from the league.

Philadelphia was without a National League franchise until a similar fate hit the Worcester (MA) Brown Stockings six years later.

Worcester faced financial difficulties and was about to fold when Alfred Reach, a Philadelphia sporting goods founder, bought the Brown Stockings and moved them to Philadelphia.

Reach named the team the Phillies, a take-off on the team's geographic roots, "Philly." Phillies is the longest-running name for any team in the National League.

Lost First Game

History shows the Phillies played their first game on May 1, 1883, losing to the Providence Grays, 4-3, at Recreation Park, 24th and Columbia Avenues. The crowd was estimated at 1,200.

It was the start of a tradition in which 1,665 players have put on a Phillies uniform and over 92 million spectators have attended games since the turn of the century when attendance figures were first recorded.

In 1887, the Phillies moved into a new "magnificent park" at Broad and Huntingdon Streets, which later became known as Baker Bowl (capacity 15,000). An estimated 20,000 fans jammed the park for the first game, April 30, a 19-10 win over the New York Giants.

The Phillies had to share the Philadelphia baseball scene when the American League was formed in 1901. One of the eight teams was the Athletics under manager Connie Mack.

Pat Moran

The Athletics enjoyed more success than the Phillies and thus were more popular. The A's won six pennants in their first 15 years while the Phillies could muster just one.

That first championship came in 1915 when Pat Moran, a former catcher with the Phillies, led them to the pennant in his first year as manager. Grover Cleveland Alexander, a 31-game winner, won the first World Series game against the Boston Red Sox, who then swept the next four games.

While the A's had a strong run in the 1930s (three pennants, including two straight World Championships in 1929-30), the Phillies floundered. Outfielder Chuck Klein led an awesome attack but an awful pitching staff kept the Phillies from winning.

Baker Bowl began to deteriorate physically when some wooden bleachers gave way in 1927 forcing the Phillies to play a few games at Shibe Park (home of the A's). Finally, after 51 years at their stadium, the Phillies moved permanently to Shibe Park, July 4, 1938, splitting a doubleheader with Boston, a 10-5 loss and a 10-2 win.

Ownership of the Phillies seemed to change constantly, while the A's remained stable under the Shibe family. From 1903-1943, the Phillies had ten different owners.

Carpenter Era Begins

Perhaps the most significant move in Phillies history came when the Carpenter family of duPont wealth in Wilmington (DE), bought the team on November 23, 1943, for an estimated $400,000.

In an effort to stimulate more interest in the club, Bob Carpenter Jr., the new president, announced a contest was being held to find a nickname for the Phillies. For 1944 and 1945, the club was known as the Blue Jays although they still maintained the official Phillies title. The name Blue Jays was chosen from among 623 suggestions.

The name Blue Jays was heavily used the first two years (1944-45) and then began to appear less often in the newspapers in 1946 and 1947. The name never appeared in the newspapers after that year.

When Carpenter took over as President, he began to pour money into building a minor league system.

The efforts paid off rather quickly when a young team, nicknamed the Whiz Kids, won the 1950 pennant. Dick Sisler hit a dramatic three-run homer in the 10th inning at Ebbets Field to sink the Brooklyn Dodgers, 4-1.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

Robin Roberts won 20 games that season, the first of six straight 20-win seasons. Richie Ashburn, the center fielder, started a string of hitting over .300 for seven straight years, including two batting titles.

A world title eluded the Phillies as the New York Yankees swept the Phillies in four straight games.

Eddie Sawyer's young club was expected to be a force for a few years but a third-place tie in 1953 was the best they could do.

The A's, meanwhile, began to slide. After finishing last in 1954, their 11th eighth-place finish in 23 seasons, the A's were sold and moved to Kansas City. Once again, Philadelphia was a one-team baseball town.

Shibe Park was renamed Connie Mack Stadium in honor of the A's owner/manager in 1953. But it's worth noting that as early as 1953, a new stadium in Philadelphia was envisioned by Mayor Richardson Dilworth. Thirteen years and many disagreements later, ground was broken for Veterans Stadium, which finally opened with the Phillies hosting the Montreal Expos on April 10, 1971. In 1995, 25 years later, the Phillies celebrated the Silver Season of the Vet with a special logo and events throughout the year.

Richie Ashburn

Sisler's historic homer in 1950 was replaced as the greatest moment in Phillies history when at precisely 11:29 p.m., Tuesday, October 21, 1980, Tug McGraw struck out Kansas City's Willie Wilson to give the franchise its first World Championship. Dallas Green was the manager.

Under the leadership of Ruly Carpenter, who replaced his dad as president in 1972, and general manager Paul Owens, the Phillies dominated the National League East in the mid-1970s. They won three consecutive division titles starting in 1976 but couldn't get over the hump until 1980, a year after they had signed free agent Pete Rose.

The Phillies made it to the World Series that year by defeating the Houston Astros in a gut-wrenching National League Championship Series. Utopia hit Philadelphia when the Phillies won the Series over the Royals, 4-2.

The powerful Phillies teams of that era were anchored by two Hall of Famers, Steve Carlton, the first pitcher to win four Cy Young Awards, and third baseman Mike Schmidt, a three-time MVP.

Carpenter Family Sells

The end of a different era occurred after the 1981 season. Citing escalating player salaries, the Carpenter family put the Phillies up for sale. Bill Giles, Executive Vice President under Ruly Carpenter, and five other partners purchased the team for $30 million.

In just the second year of this new ownership group, the Phillies won their fifth Eastern Division title in eight years. Adding two veterans, Tony Perez and Joe Morgan, to an experienced team created the nickname, Wheeze Kids.

Owens, who went from the front office to manage the team in July, guided the Phillies to the World Series for the fourth time by eliminating the Los Angeles Dodgers in the NLCS.

The Baltimore Orioles, however, won the World Series, 4-1.

From generation to generation, fans' heroes change. A new set of heroes emerged from the 1993 season, when a last-place team from the previous year turned it around with another division title.

This team didn't have one nickname such as the Whiz Kids or Wheeze Kids. They had many names because they were a group of athletes who became Phillies through shrewd moves by General Manager Lee Thomas.

Jim Fregosi joined Moran, Sawyer, Green and Owens as managers who led the Phillies to an NL pennant and a trip to the World Series.

Heroes such as Alexander, Klein, Roberts, Ashburn, Carlton and Schmidt will always be remembered but there were new heroes on the scene from the 1993 team, which led the NL for all but one day throughout the season. Lenny Dykstra was second in the MVP race; Terry Mulholland, John Kruk, Darren Daulton and Dave Hollins were All-Stars but this was a total team effort. All 25 players emerged as heroes.

As underdogs, the Phillies dumped the favorite Atlanta Braves, 4-2, to make their third World Series appearance in the last 13 years. Their spring training neighbors, the Toronto Blue Jays, were the opponents.

A very entertaining World Series abruptly ended with Joe Carter's three-run homer which gave the Blue Jays their second consecutive World Championship.

On June 20, 1997, David Montgomery, former Executive Vice President, succeeded Giles as President of the Phillies. Giles became Chairman upon handing the reins over to Montgomery.

But, Phillies baseball is more than wins and losses. It involves people.

People who were Hall of Famers during the early years of the franchise, Harry Wright, Ed Delahanty and Sam Thompson.

People who were MVP winners, Klein, Jim Konstanty and Schmidt.

People who won Cy Young Awards, starting with Carlton's four and followed by John Denny and Steve Bedrosian.

People who were Rookie of the Year winners, Jack Sanford, Dick Allen and Scott Rolen.

PHILLIES TEAM HISTORY

People who reached fans, first on the airwaves, and later on television, Gene Kelly, By Saam, Ashburn, Bill Campbell, Harry Kalas, Andy Musser and Chris Wheeler.

Oh yes. There's one more important date in Phillies history...April 25, 1978, when a big green furry creature made its debut as the team's mascot...Phillie Phanatic. As with the 117-year old baseball team, the Phanatic, too, is a tradition.

PHILLIES IN THE COMMUNITY

Commitment to the surrounding community has been a hallmark of the Phillies ever since Bill Giles and his partners assumed ownership of the club in 1981.

Phillies Charities, Inc. serves as the fundraising arm of the Phillies organization and covers the wide variety of charity involvement of the organization. In addition to giving funds and providing thousands of charitable donations to a variety of local non-profit organizations, the Phillies have raised over $4.8 million for the official Phillies charity, ALS (Lou Gehrig's Disease), since 1984.

Phillies™
AT BAT IN OUR COMMUNITY

Rico Brogna, Doug Glanville, Wayne Gomes, Mike Lieberthal, Scott Rolen and Curt Schilling are among the Phillies players who also donate time and money to a variety of charities throughout the season.

Not to be overlooked are the players' wives, who work and volunteer as a group (Women in the Major Leagues) throughout the year to raise funds for Childhelp USA and Big Brothers and Sisters of America.

Among the groups benefiting from the Phillies are: the Boy Scouts of America, CADE, Junior Baseball Federation, Jackie Robinson Foundation, Police Athletic League and the United Negro College Fund.

The Phillies Speakers Bureau is comprised of active and former players, coaches, broadcasters and management, appearing throughout the tri-state area.

Dickie Noles is a key member of the bureau. He speaks to parents and youth groups about alcohol and drug abuse through his S.A.V.E.S. program.

The Phillies are also committed to promoting and supporting education and literacy programs. Among those programs: "Breaking Barriers", Free Library Reading Program and Philadelphia School District Reading Program, Multiple Sclerosis Read-Athon, and our Visit the Vet Program.

In addition, the Phillies are committed to developing youth baseball in the Philadelphia area. Rookie and RBI leagues are designed to encourage inner city children (from ages 6-18) to play baseball. Combined, the programs involve more than 7,500 boys and girls yearly. The Phillies also initiated two local tournaments for baseball players. The Carpenter Cup is a tournament designed to give exposure to tri-state area high school baseball players and the Liberty Bell Classic does the same for college-level players.

The Phillies wives ran a silent auction for the American Red Cross in 1999 to benefit local victims of Hurricane Floyd.

THE PHANATIC

HT: 6 feet; WT: 300 pounds, mostly fat
AGE: Made debut on April 25, 1978
BIRTHPLACE: Galapagos Islands
EYES: White eyeballs, black pupils, purple eyelashes and blue eyebrows
SKIN: Bright green fur
PHYSICAL DEFECTS: Overweight, clumsy feet, extra long beak, curled-up red tongue, gawking neck, slight case of body odor.

The Phanatic was created out of one of the weekly staff meetings of the Phillies marketing department after the 1977 season. It was named after the fanatical Phillies fans.

The original person in the costume was David Raymond, a graduate of Newark (DE) High School and the University of Delaware (1979), BA degree in physical education. In his 17 years, Raymond missed just eight games.

Tom Burgoyne, the current Phanatic, actually began his fanatical career as Raymond's back-up in 1989 and then joined the Phillies promotional staff in 1990. He has made world-wide appearances with Major League Baseball International, including Japan (1997 and 1998) and Australia (1997 and 1999). The 34-year-old is a graduate of St. Joseph's Preparatory School and Drexel University (1988), where he earned a BS degree in Marketing. He and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Andrew and Daniel.

NL	3	10	0

Bobby Doerr's 3-run homer in the second inning propelled the AL Stars to their third straight victory before 31,938. Vince DiMaggio led the NL with a single, triple and home run. Winner: Emil Leonard; Loser: Mort Cooper. It was the first ASG played entirely under the lights. July 8, 1952, Shibe Park

NL	3	3	0
AL	2	5	0

Jackie Robinson hit a solo homer in the first and Hank Sauer hit a two-run homer onto the LF roof in the fourth for all the NL runs. Two Philadelphia pitchers started the game, Curt Simmons (Phillies) and Bobby Shantz (A's). Shantz fanned Whitey Lockman, Robinson and Stan Musial in the fifth to the delight of 32,785 fans. Winner: Bob Rush; Loser: Bob Lemon. Game was broadcast on Mutual Radio System and on NBC TV.

July 13, 1976, Veterans Stadium

NL	7	10	0

For first time in Phillies history, they had five players in the game: Greg Luzinski (starter in LF), Dave Cash (2b), Larry Bowa (ss), Bob Boone (c) and Mike Schmidt (3b). Winner: Randy Jones; Loser: Mark Fidrych. An estimated 60 million fans watched the game on ABC TV.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Phillies came into the National League in 1883, having moved from Worcester, MA (Brown Stockings). They have been known as the Phillies ever since, the longest-running nickname in pro sports. Although the club was known as the Blue Jays in 1944 and 1945, the name was never officially changed from the Phillies.
